The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Armstrong in the chair.
A considerable discussion occurred upon a motion submitted by Mr. Mann to strike out the provision prohibiting the use of the school houses for any the use of the school houses for any other than school purposes, and with-out reaching a conclusion the House took a recess.

out reacess.

Before doing so the Speaker an nounced the following Conference Committees on Chapters returned from the Senate with amendments insisted on.

Chapter 90, Messrs. Ferguson of Cabell, Parker and Mahon; chapter 103, Hearmans, Stewart and Welch; chapter 135, Welch, Parker and Fleming of Harrison; chapter 128, Boggess, Dunnington and Errguson of Cabell; chapter 145, Billmyer, Ferguson of Cabell, and Hervey; chapter 159, Mahon, Pinnell and Davisson; chapter 163, Heermans, Ferguson of Cabell, and Armiston, Ferguson of Cabell, and Hervey; chapter 160, Mahon, Pinnell and Davisson; chapter 163, Heermans, Ferguson of Cabell, and Armistong.

The proposition of Mr. Mann was so modified as to provide that school property shall not be used for any but school purposes, except by permission of the township board of education.

Another amendment, offered by Mr. Another amendment, offered by Mr. Ferguson of Cabell, and agreed to, was that school districts which have built school houses acceptable to the county superintendent, shall not be taxed for building purposes. Another was to make the county superintendent, shall not be taxed for building purposes. Another was to make the county superintendents appointable by the Circuit Courts when the terms of those now in affice shall have expired; to reduce their compensation to $2 a day for time actually employed, not to exceed $100 a year, and a fee of $2 for each examination of teachers.

Mr. Boggess moved to insert a provision that if any county have not a sufficient number of youth to entitle it to 50 per cent of the whole amount paid by it find the general superintendent should return such county one-third of the amount see by it into the general school fund, the general Superintendent should return such county one-third of the amount so taid. This amendment was chiefly advocated by Mr. Chambers and opposed by Mesars. Ferguson of Cabell, Riddle and Hervey.

After the House had gone through the chanter, the charten the Charman of the Committee or Revision reported provisions for the government of the State College and State Normal School. The only changes in the law governing the State College were two; 1st. making the name "West Virginia University," and 2nd allowing the Governor to appoint the regents of the College as a cancies occur by expiration of term or point the regents of the College as va-cancies occur by expiration of term or otherwise, instead of allowing the re-mainder of the board of regents to fill vacancies in their own body, as the ex-isting law provides. The latter pro-vision was stricken out and the exist-ling law substituted. The committee rose and reported the amended chapter to the House. The re-yort was adouted and the chapter passed port was adopted and the chapter passed to engressment. Adjourned tHI 2 P. M., to-morrow.

The Indians there were encamped on the Washits, as follows:

First, Black Kettle and other chiefs of the Cheyennes, and a small party of Sioux, in all numbering fifty-one lodges. Eight miles down the stream were all the Arrapaboes and seventy additional lodges of Cheyennes; also, the Klowas, then the Apaches and Comanches. While thus encamped three war parties were sent out north, one composed of Cheyennes, Klowas and Arrapahoes, went north in the direction of Laraed, and the trail of which we crossed in coming down; it was still out. Another party, composed of Cheyennes and Arrapahoes, which party returned, and the trail of which led-tien. Custar into Black Kettle's village. This party brought back three scalps, one of which was the express man killed and horribly mutilated just before I left Fort Dodge. The mail on his person was found in Black Kettle's camp. The other party was a mixed party, and went out on foot in the direction of Lyon, and is still out.

About the time the first of these parties left Black Kettle a camp.

About the time the first of these par-ies left, Black Kettle and a representa-ion of one sub-chief from each of the ands, visited Fort Cobb and all prought back provisions from Gen. Iszon or some one else there, and while
